

Please delay voting on the broadcast ownership rule changes, at least until such time as the text of the changes has been made public and there has been the opportunity to discuss them in public debate.

Further concentration of media ownership and the concomitant loss of diversity of views has NOT been good for the health of our democracy. Allowing further concentration of media ownership will only make an already bad situation much worse.